22 | ALD appoints new head of investor relations

OCTOBER
2021

ALD is pleased to announce the appointment of Béatrice Lan-Shun as Head of Investor Relations, effective 1 January 2022. She succeeds Clémence Mignot-Dupeyrot who has left the Group to pursue other professional opportunities.

Béatrice Lan-Shun started her career in Equity research covering construction stocks at CCF Securities in 1999. She joined Societe Generale in 2000 as an Equity research analyst, before moving to the Finance division in 2005 to manage financial communications and relations with rating agencies, followed by liquidity regulation in 2009. She transferred to the Risk division in 2013 to assess credit risk on Russian corporates. In 2018, Béatrice moved to Hong Kong to set-up a liquidity risk framework in Asia.

Béatrice Lan-Shun holds degrees in Finance from Nanterre University and Paris Dauphine University and is a graduate of the Société Française des Analystes Financiers.

ALD was successfully listed on the Euronext stock market in June 2017.
